TEACH IT is a new initiative within the IU School of Informatics and Computing. Participants will receive university credit for real world internships working with local non-profits and youth teaching basic technology skills.

Help kids in after-school programs learn:

- Basic coding like Scratch and Code.org
- Simple Website Development
- Computer Animation
- Video Production
- Internet Safety

Due March 7th
Application At: serveit.soic.indiana.edu/apply